To:
Donna Roberts
Hiring Manager
Parker, Evan & Rodriguez
donna@per.com
New York City, NY

Dear Donna,

I am writing to express my interest in the Paralegal position at your firm. I am confident that my education, internship experience, and numerous educational achievements and extracurricular activities make me an ideal candidate for this role.

I am a recent graduate from Harvard Law School, where I earned a Juris Doctor degree with a specialization in litigation. During my time at law school, I completed an internship with Harvey Reginald Specter law firm, where I gained valuable experience in legal research and drafting, as well as case management. I also excelled academically, earning a place on the Dean's List and receiving the "Outstanding Performance in Litigation" award for my exceptional grades in litigation-related courses. Additionally, I was awarded the "Outstanding Pro Bono Contribution" for my exceptional volunteer work with the Pro-Bono society, where I have provided legal assistance to over 100 underserved individuals, resulting in a 90% success rate in resolving their legal issues.

In addition to my formal education and internship experience, I have also been actively involved in extracurricular activities, such as the Law School's Moot Court team, where I competed in several regional and national competitions, and received the "Best oral Advocate" award in one of the competitions. Furthermore, I have also been a member of the Law School's Pro-Bono Society, where I have been volunteering to provide legal assistance to underserved communities.

I am confident that my education, experience, and extracurricular activities have prepared me well for a career as a paralegal. I am highly organized and detail-oriented, with strong analytical and research skills. In my previous internship, I have assisted with legal research and drafting legal documents, such as pleadings, motions and briefs, resulting in a 50% reduction in the time spent on drafting motions. I have also helped to organize and maintain case files, as well as assisted in trial preparation.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills and experience to your firm and contribute to the success of your legal team. I am confident that I can make a meaningful contribution to your firm and I am eager to begin my legal career.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your team.

Sincerely,
Penelope Webb

To:
Mason Foster
Hiring Manager
QuantSmart
mason@quantsmart.com
San Francisco, CA

Dear Mason,

I am writing to express my interest in the Administrative Assistant position that is currently available at QuantSmart. I am a highly motivated individual with a strong desire to learn and grow professionally. I have gained valuable experience and knowledge through various online certificates and courses that I have completed. I am excited about the opportunity to apply my skills and knowledge to a professional setting and to contribute to the success of your company.

Throughout my career, I have gained a strong foundation in administrative skills, including proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite, scheduling, and coordination. In addition to my formal education, I have also taken several online certificates and courses to enhance my skills and stay current with industry trends. These include a certificate in "Effective Communication" from the University of California, Berkeley, and a course in "Project Management" from the International Association of Project Managers.

As a detail-oriented individual, I take pride in my ability to spot and correct errors in documents and data. At my previous company, I:

- Reviewed and verified all incoming financial data at ABC Organization, resulting in a 100% accuracy rate.
- Implemented a new data entry protocol that reduced errors by 25%.
- Maintained a database of over 1000 clients and vendors.
- Ensured that all contact information and records were accurate and up-to-date.
- Improved communication and enhanced business relationships with clients and vendors.

I am confident that my experience, skills, and desire to learn and grow professionally would make me a valuable asset to your team. I am excited about the opportunity to work with a team of professionals and to continue to improve my skills and knowledge.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further and learn more about the opportunity to join your company. Please feel free to contact me at any time to schedule an interview.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,
Ryan Cooper

37. “What motivates you to do your best work?”

a. "I’m motivated by deadlines because they push me to get things done, even if I wait until the last minute to start."

b. "My motivation comes from wanting to improve and see progress. For example, in school, I always tried to do better on each assignment to see how much I could improve. It gave me a sense of accomplishment and helped me stay focused on my goals."

c."I’m usually motivated by external rewards like grades or praise from teachers. If there’s no reward, I find it hard to stay motivated."

d."I’m motivated when I see others around me working hard, so I can keep up with their pace."

e."I don’t really need motivation. I just do what I need to do whether I’m motivated or not."

38. “How do you manage and handle feedback related to your job?”

a. "I’m not very comfortable with feedback, especially if it’s critical. I usually take it personally."

b. "I always appreciate feedback, but I prefer when it’s positive. If it’s negative, I try to ignore it so it doesn’t affect me."

c. "I welcome feedback because it helps me improve. For example, after receiving feedback from a director about a presentation, I adjusted my speaking style, practiced more, and improved my presentation skills for the upcoming project."

d. "I handle feedback by making sure that I don’t let it affect me emotionally, though I rarely make changes based on what others say."

e. "I don’t usually get much feedback, but when I do, I just listen to it and move on without dwelling on it."

39. “Thank you for attending the interview session today. Before we end the conversation, do you have any question?”

a. “Yes, I have a question. Will I be accepted to this company since I am the only one who apply for this job?”

b. “Yes, I have a question. Is there any consideration about my salary for each month?”

c. “Yes, what should I prepare for the job desk I apply?”

d. “Yes, I do. What should I do after this?”

e. “Yes, I do. According to the result of interview today, when will I obtain the upcoming announcement?”

40. Expression that you can deliver after finishing the interview session is…

a. “Thank you for the opportunity. I am looking forward for the upcoming information about the result of today’s interview.”

b. “Thank you for the time. It will be a good idea for us if I joined this company as soon as possible.”
